

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/33

Paper 3 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Section 1: Directed Writing

Question 1

This question tests Writing Objectives W1–W5 (15 marks):

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

AND aspects of Reading Objectives R1–R3 (10 marks):

- understand and collate explicit meanings
- understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes.

Read carefully the magazine article in the Reading Booklet Insert and then answer Section 1, Question 1.

Write a letter to the editor of the newspaper in which you

- identify and evaluate arguments presented in the article
- Explain why you do or do not you agree with the writer's views.

Base your letter on what you have read in the passage, but be careful to use your own words.

Begin your letter,

'Dear Editor,

I feel strongly about the article you published recently...'

Write between 1½ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing.

General notes on likely content

Average responses are sometimes well ordered summaries of the article. Less strong responses may be brief evaluations. Weaker responses tend to summarise, lift parts of the reading material or write irrelevantly, drifting away from the passage.

Look for a clear response which is well structured and in the candidate's own words. There are many possible strands of argument in the passage, and the candidate is not expected to use all of them, but to select, develop, and link some of them.

Candidates might use the following:

A1 – writer's arguments from the passage (explicit)

- emails tend to be short and informative, not a lengthy sharing of thoughts and feelings
- emails and on-line cards too impersonal
- no physical tactile pleasure without an envelope to open
- postal mail is now all junk or bills
- we need to see people's handwriting to be able to form an opinion of them
- handwriting is deteriorating through lack of practice
- exams still need handwriting skills
- we are becoming de-skilled as writers
- saved things on a computer are less likely to be looked at again
- one becomes sentimentally attached to real photos and letters
- posting a letter takes time and trouble, and shows love for the recipient
- historical research relies on letter collections
- we are less patient nowadays because communication has become instant
- we are losing the aesthetic and literary aspects of communication
- we have lost a valuable practice begun in antiquity

A2 – possible alternative arguments (implicit)

- postal services often unreliable
- people like to see that they have mail in their in-box
- the elderly are often users of computers and email (may find it easier than going to a postbox)
- one shouldn't judge people by their handwriting
- exams will soon be done on-line
- humans evolve and so do their skills
- photo albums of decaying pictures are rarely looked at
- letters and photographs as hard copies take up huge amounts of space
- electronic letters and photos don't get lost or burned in house fires
- one can instantly access letters and photos on computer, wherever one is
- people away from home prefer to hear voice on phone, or use Skype, with added benefit of camera, rather than rely on written communication
- emails can be printed if necessary, and used for historical purposes
- a lot of other processes begun in antiquity are now dead, because no longer needed

The question is marked out of 10 for Reading and 15 for Writing.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

Band 1	9–10	Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing evaluation. Reads effectively between the lines. Shows understanding by developing much of the reading material and assimilating it into a response to the task.
Band 2	7–8	Some evidence of evaluation , engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of ideas in the material.
Band 3	5–6	Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material adequately, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length.
Band 4	3–4	Selects points from the passage rather literally and/or uses the material thinly . Does not combine points into a connected response.
Band 5	1–2	Parts of the response are relevant, though the material may be repeated or used inappropriately.
Band 6	0	Response does not relate to question and/or too much unselective copying directly from the material to gain a mark in Band 5.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

Band 1	13–15	Consistent sense of audience; authoritative and appropriate style. Fluent, varied sentences; wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Virtually no error.
Band 2	10–12	Sense of audience mostly secure; there is evidence of style and fluency; sentences and vocabulary are effective. Secure overall structure; mostly well-sequenced. Writing is mainly accurate.
Band 3	8–9	Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in correctly structured sentences; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task; mostly quite well structured. Errors minor.
Band 4	5–7	Inconsistent style; simple or faultily constructed sentences; vocabulary simple; basic structure. Frequent errors, including sentence separation.
Band 5	3–4	Inappropriate expression; the response is not always well sequenced. Serious errors in sentence structure/vocabulary/grammar/punctuation.
Band 6	1–2	Expression unclear; flawed sentence construction and order. Persistent serious errors interfere with the conveying of meaning.
Band 7	0	Problems of expression and accuracy are too serious to gain a mark in Band 6.
